

Terra Mosaic

TEXTILE PAINTINGS / DEINCANTOS / MADE IN ITALY

2 485,00 EUR

IMMEDIATELY AVAILABLE

DIMENSIONS

120 x 1,5 x 50 cm

WEIGHT

5 kg

OVERVIEW

Hand-woven textile panel with Sardinian cork insets, mounted and framed. A dynamic composition of angular geometric facets—warm ochres, deep browns and teal blues intersect with russet and gold—punctuated by circular and fragmentary cork inserts. The work is set against a wide matte black passe-partout and a simple black wood frame. Handmade production: each piece is developed from sketch to vertical loom and requires many hours of careful weaving, cutting and hand finishing.

DESCRIPTION

A tactile study in contrast and material juxtaposition. The surface is a collage of handwoven triangles and trapezia where dense warp and weft meet textured inserts and shaped cork elements. The cork accents—both circular and irregular fragments—introduce an earthy, matte relief that counterpoints the velvety and patterned textile patches. Light travels differently across velvets, brocades and cork, creating subtle shadows and a layered sense of depth. Mounted visibly on a broad matte black passe-partout and housed in a minimal black-stained wood frame, the piece reads as a sculptural panel or a stitched relief map. The pared-back framing foregrounds materiality: irregular stitched joins, slight colour variations, and the hand-cut cork edges all signal manual making. Produced with Sardinian and locally sourced natural fibres and traditional techniques adapted for a contemporary vocabulary, every work is one-of-a-kind. Ideal as a focal architectural accent in a living room, hallway or gallery wall where texture and craft are central.

A tactile study in contrast and material juxtaposition. The surface is a collage of handwoven triangles and trapezia where dense warp and weft meet textured inserts and shaped cork elements. The cork accents—both circular and irregular fragments—introduce an earthy, matte relief that counterpoints the velvety and patterned textile patches. Light travels differently across velvets, brocades and cork, creating subtle shadows and a layered sense of depth. Mounted visibly on a broad matte black passe-partout and housed in a minimal black-stained wood frame, the piece reads as a sculptural panel or a stitched relief map. The pared-back framing foregrounds materiality: irregular stitched joins, slight colour variations, and the hand-cut cork edges all signal manual making. Produced with Sardinian and locally sourced natural fibres and traditional techniques adapted for a contemporary vocabulary, every work is one-of-a-kind. Ideal as a focal architectural accent in a living room, hallway or gallery wall where texture and craft are central.

DESCRIPTION — CONTINUED

A tactile study in contrast and material juxtaposition. The surface is a collage of handwoven triangles and trapezia where dense warp and weft meet textured inserts and shaped cork elements. The cork accents—both circular and irregular fragments—introduce an earthy, matte relief that counterpoints the velvety and patterned textile patches. Light travels differently across velvets, brocades and cork, creating subtle shadows and a layered sense of depth. Mounted visibly on a broad matte black passe-partout and housed in a minimal black-stained wood frame, the piece reads as a sculptural panel or a stitched relief map. The pared-back framing foregrounds materiality: irregular stitched joins, slight colour variations, and the hand-cut cork edges all signal manual making. Produced with Sardinian and locally sourced natural fibres and traditional techniques adapted for a contemporary vocabulary, every work is one-of-a-kind. Ideal as a focal architectural accent in a living room, hallway or gallery wall where texture and craft are central.

A tactile study in contrast and material juxtaposition. The surface is a collage of handwoven triangles and trapezia where dense warp and weft meet textured inserts and shaped cork elements. The cork accents—both circular and irregular fragments—introduce an earthy, matte relief that counterpoints the velvety and patterned textile patches. Light travels differently across velvets, brocades and cork, creating subtle shadows and a layered sense of depth. Mounted visibly on a broad matte black passe-partout and housed in a minimal black-stained wood frame, the piece reads as a sculptural panel or a stitched relief map. The pared-back framing foregrounds materiality: irregular stitched joins, slight colour variations, and the hand-cut cork edges all signal manual making. Produced with Sardinian and locally sourced natural fibres and traditional techniques adapted for a contemporary vocabulary, every work is one-of-a-kind. Ideal as a focal architectural accent in a living room, hallway or gallery wall where texture and craft are central.

SPECIFICATIONS

Technique

Hand weaving on a vertical loom with layered warp and weft, appliqué inserts, and hand-cut cork insets Technique: Hand weaving on a vertical loom with layered warp and weft, appliqué inserts, and hand-cut cork insets

Mark

Maker's signature/mark on reverse

Orientation

Rectangular/landscape

DIMENSIONS & WEIGHT

Dimensions: 120x 1.5 x 50 cm (W x D x H)

Weight: approx. 5 kg

Production

CARE & WARRANTY

Dust gently with a soft brush or low-suction vacuum using a textile nozzle.

Avoid prolonged direct sunlight, extreme heat and high humidity to preserve fibres, dyes and cork.

For stains, consult a professional textile conservator; spot cleaning only is recommended.

Terra Mosaic explores the meeting of soft weave and earthy cork: a conversation between making and material where each cut, stitch and insert records the maker's hand. The result is a crafted object meant to hold quiet attention and age with dignity.

Terra Mosaic explores the meeting of soft weave and earthy cork: a conversation between making and material where each cut, stitch and insert records the maker's hand. The result is a crafted object meant to hold quiet attention and age with dignity.

Terra Mosaic explores the meeting of soft weave and earthy cork: a conversation between making and material where each cut, stitch and insert records the maker's hand. The result is a crafted object meant to hold quiet attention and age with dignity.

Terra Mosaic explores the meeting of soft weave and earthy cork: a conversation between making and material where each cut, stitch and insert records the maker's hand. The result is a crafted object meant to hold quiet attention and age with dignity.

SHIPPING

Shipping rates are applied during check-out. Each Vagabond piece is packaged with care. For more information please view our Shipping Policy page or feel free to contact us with any questions at info@vagabond-atelier.com

Estimated delivery time:

IT 3-5 days

EU 6-8 days

DOWNLOADS

???? CARE RECOMMENDATIONS

???? CERTIFICATION

DISCOVER THE ARTISAN

Deincantos

Discover the artist behind this piece. Learn more about the materials and the techniques used to create it.

DISCOVER

DIMENSIONS & WEIGHT

Handmade production time: each piece is developed in stages—from sketch to loom to assembly—and requires many hours of weaving, applique and finishing.

Product data sheet and care instructions provided as PDF.

MATERIALS

Sardinian natural fibres (wool and blended yarns), cork inserts, archival black passe-partout, black stained wood frame.

[caption id="attachment_29729" align="alignnone" width="400"]
D750/caption]

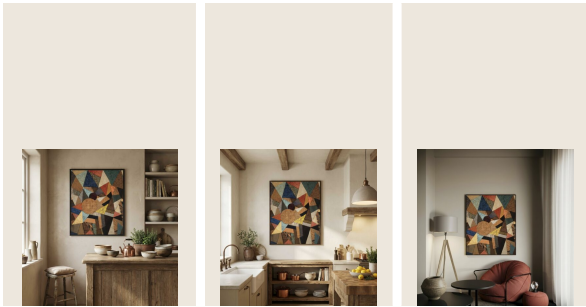

CUSTOMIZATION

Alternate framing, passpartout colours and bespoke sizing available on request.

Commissioned variants (colourways or larger formats) can be produced — lead times and pricing quoted per order.

To request any customizations please fill the form:

[wpforms id="1100"]

COLOUR VARIANTS AND PRODUCT VIEWS